Discussion Questions for Chapter 11

1. After skipping several meals, Dod said his food tasted like Christmas Dinner at Aunt Hilda's house. What did he mean? Why do things seem so much better when we've gone without them for a while? What happens if we always get what we want, when we want it?
2. Why didn't people notice that Dod and Dilly were napping all day? Who do you think caused the trouble? Is it okay to do bad things if you have good reasons? Explain.
3. Bonboo said that Pap fought with the strength of a lion and yet still lived as gently as a man. What could this mean? If you are a strong, tough person, is it a weakness to show kindness? Can you be both tough and kind at the same time?
4. Bonboo told Dod that Pap had said "I haven't felt this good since yesterday." What can you tell about Pap's personality from this statement? How can your attitude make a difference in your life?
